

Friends and Family Test

We want your feedback

The NHS wants to make sure that all patients receive good care and treatment.

The Friends and Family Test asks you to tell us about the care you received in hospital.

Your feedback can be good or bad.

It is your choice if you would like to give feedback or not.

Your feedback is private. You do not give your name.

After your hospital appointment or stay in hospital you will be sent a text message. If you want to give feedback, click on the web address and answer the questions.

Text only

Your good or bad feedback matters to us. It will help us make things better.
