

Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU) (Oral and Maxillofacial Medical Tattooing)

Information for patients from the Oral and Maxillofacial Department Medical Tattooing

What is a Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU)?

After your recent consultation or treatment, you have agreed to be placed on a Patient Initiated Follow-Up (PIFU) Pathway.

This means we will not make you regular review appointments. Instead, you can make an appointment to see your clinician or healthcare team when you need it. This will be if you need:

- further treatment; or
- further consultation.

You can make an appointment to see us if you have any concerns related to your specific condition or symptoms until:

Date: _____

What do I need to do to book my appointment?

If you need an appointment, please phone us on 01233 651859 or email our secretaries (ekhuft.medtat@nhs.net).

Your appointment could be via telephone, video or face to face.

What happens if I do not ring the hospital?

If you do not ring the hospital within the timescale we have given you, you will be discharged from us back to the care of your GP or original referrer. You can contact them to be re-referred back into us later if you need to.

When should I not use this service?

- If your concern is related to a different condition or symptoms.
- If the time period stated has lapsed, please see your GP.
- If you need urgent medical advice you should contact your GP or NHS111.

Further information

If you have any questions about booking your appointment, please speak to the receptionist before you leave the hospital or feel free to call us on 01233 651859.
